18 1640.4. Alternative Programs Certifying Competence in Significant Core

19 Concepts.

20 (a) The Board, at its discretion, may recognize one or more independent educational 21 programs to serve as an equivalent alternative for satisfying the requirement in Section 22 1640.3(b) that an applicant demonstrate professional competence in the significant core 23 concepts in the subjects identified in that section. A recognized program may be 24 referred to as an Apprentice Professional Forester Program. An applicant who 25 otherwise meets the criteria for licensure and who successfully completes a recognized

1 educational program described in this section shall be eligible for a license upon 2 successful completion of the abbreviated examination described in Section 1640.3(b).

3
4 (b) (1) A professional society or public agency may apply for Board recognition of the 5 entity's independent educational program as satisfying the requirement that an applicant
6 demonstrate professional competence in the understanding of significant core concepts 7 in the subjects identified in Section 1640.3. The entity shall submit its program to the 8 Board for evaluation, including information about eligibility requirements, curriculum 9 content, requirements for successful completion of the program, and process by which 10 the committee and Board may confirm that an applicant has completed the program.

11 (2) An independent educational program shall be eligible for recognition only if all 12 instruction is provided by an RPF or is under the supervision of an RPF.

13 (3) The Board shall not recognize an independent educational program unless it 14 determines that the program protects the public interest by ensuring that participants 15 who successfully complete the program have an understanding of the significant core 16 concepts in the subjects identified in Section 1640.3(a) that is equal to or greater than 17 what the Board expects an applicant to demonstrate in order to pass that portion of the 18 comprehensive exam described in Section 1640.3(b).

19 (4) The entity administering a recognized independent educational program shall 20 notify and obtain committee approval of any changes to the program prior to 21 implementation. Any significant proposed changes to the program shall be approved by 22 the Board.

23 (5) On or before [DATE] of each year, the entity administering a recognized 24 independent educational program shall submit a report to the Executive Officer of 25 Forester Licensing describing the program's accomplishments for the previous calendar

1 year. The report shall include information regarding the number individuals who apply to 2 the program, the number of individuals accepted into the program, the number of 3 accepted participants who successfully complete the program, a summary of reasons 4 any individuals failed to complete the program and copies of any examinations or other 5 criteria used by the entity to determine that a participant has successfully completed the 6 program.

7 (6) The Board may review a recognized educational program from time to time to 8 evaluate whether the program continues to meet the criteria for recognition. The Board 9 may rescind recognition of an independent educational program at any time if it 10 determines the program no longer complies with the requirements of this section or 11 protects the public interest, or both.

12
13 (c) The Board shall publish a list of independent educational programs recognized 14 pursuant to this section on its website.

15
16 (d) Eligibility to participate in a qualifying independent educational program shall be 17 limited to individuals who have obtained at least four years of qualifying forestry work 18 experience or four years qualifying forestry work experience combined with qualifying
19 substitutable education. The Executive Officer of foresters licensing shall review

21 qualifications prior to their enrollment in the independent educational program and 22 provide notice of the confirmation to the sponsoring professional society or public 23 agency.
